Fanning out their skirts, Megan McLerran (10), Grace Peltier (10), and Elizabeth Otto smile and pose in their cream dresses.

Top Right: Dashing across the floor, Michael Yagi (10) and Aaron Oziel (11), among many others, scramble to find a chair as they play "Never Have I Ever."

Center Right: Mingling outside, friends take pictures, talk and enjoy themselves after dinner. Many loved being in the fresh air out in the courtyard -- even though it was a bit chilly!

Lined up on the counter, bowls of ice cream await a variety of toppings. Yum!

Far Right: Studying her music, Lexie Calvo (11) jams out on the bass guitar as Mrs. Robin Stangland plays the trumpet in Advanced Jazz.

Right: Playing clarinets, Taylor Swanby (11) and Michael Heald (9) stand for one of their songs.

Right: As part of Intermediate Jazz Band, Steven George (10) and James Shoubridge (10) play their electric guitars.

Standing as a group, Adam Stephenson (11), Zachary Morache (11), and Rachel Osteyee (12) play their clarinets.

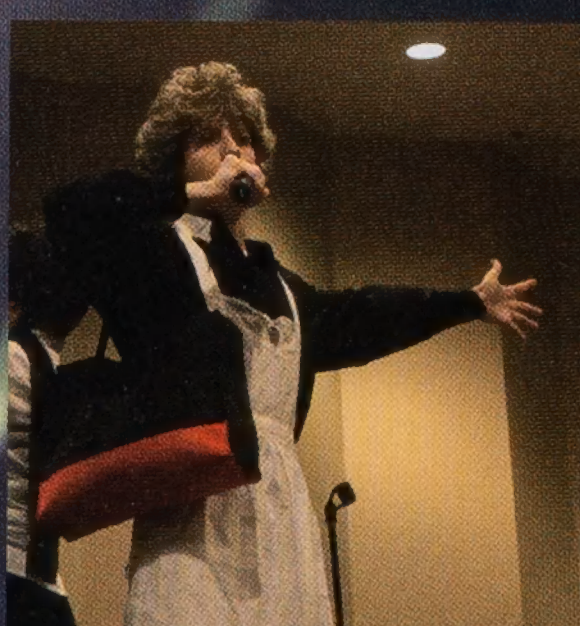

Right: With festive Sombreros, Justin Collins (7), Wesley Welch (7), and Jeremiah Oropeza (6) play their trumpets during "Tres Amigos."

Right: Wearing matching clean white shirts, the Beginning Band stands for the applause of the audience.

Sitting in the front row, Myrinda Wolitarsky (7) and Hannah Givens (6) play the flute in Beginning Band.

Above: Donning a wig and an apron, Zachary Morache (11) sings a song of a mother's typical sayings by Anita Renfroe, during "William Tell Overture," played by the Advanced Band.

Above: In her second year in Intermediate Band, Helen McPeters (6) makes musical fusion on her french horn with Mrs. Osteyee.

Right: From the balcony, Luke George (7) and Russell Graham (12) blend sounds on their trumpets.

Left: As part of the Brass Section, Jordan Banks (9), Kevyn Ness (9), Mrs. Danielson, and Audrey Stangland (9) play thier instuments in an Advanced Band selection in the March concert. Five levels of Band played in the two concerts, conducted by Mrs. Robin Stangland and Mr. Kevin Hall

Holding their flutes to their right, Rachel Ellingson (5), Adrienne Duguay (7), and Leah Johnson (6) play for Intermediate Band.

Left: Listening to Aunt Rhodie (Mrs. Morrison) describe her thoughts about having the Old Gray Goose (Jordan Brawner - 11) for Christmas dinner, the French Chef (Mr. Hutchinson) stirs his batter as he contemplates a plan to help the goose escape. This skit was an entertaining drama acted out during a medley of songs played by the Beginning Band.

Enjoying the evening, partners twirl in circles. At this particular event, there was a lack of boys, so girls partnered with girls in order to give everyone a chance to dance. Partnering during the Virginia Reel, Megan McPhetridge, Grace Halverson (11), Acacia Danielson (11), Mikel Selin (10), and Samuel Mullins spin with their "corners," the term for the person diagonally across the square.

Center Left: Watching from the sidelines, Carrie Beede (8) and Megan Johnson (8) wait for the next dance.

Awaiting directions from the instructor, Mikel Selin (10) partners with Stephanie Lebens (10). Behind them stand Sarabeth Mullins (9) and Corrine Lebens.

Making a tunnel during a round of "Hunt the Fox," Melissa Poole (11), Adella Catanzaro (11), Shirin Jamshidpour (9), Karina Strum, Anita Gray (9), Rebecca Henschman (12), Stephanie Lebens (10), and Steven Tedrow (10) enjoy the evening with friends. Part of the fun of contra dancing is the fact that you have a chance to dance with many different people and are not limited to dancing in gender-specific pairs.

Contra Dance

January 9, 2009

Standing in groups, students from Homeschool Connections and their friends danced the night away on January 9, 2009. Contra dancing refers to several folk dance styles in which couples dance in two facing lines of indefinite length. At this contra dance, taught by Sarah Halverson, friends enjoyed learning new contra dances together, such as the Scottish Polka, Virginia Reel, Grand March, and Hunt the Fox.

Left: Standing in their line, Andrew Sauter (11) and Brittany Weber (10) prepare to "reel the set," a move in which the head couple dances with each person in the line. Also dancing in the line are Mr. Mize, Tenae Lew (11), William Ryan Carter (9), Miranda Lew (11), Cassie Mize (9), Kirsten Nelson (11), and Alex Kreuch (11).

Preparing to dance the Scottish Polka, Margaret McKenzie (11), Andrew Sauter (11), Kirsten Nelson (11), Cassie Mize (9), Cara Stearns (9), Tenae Lew (11), Carrie Beede (8), Aun-Marie Taylor (9), and Mrs. Mize proceed toward the front of the room.

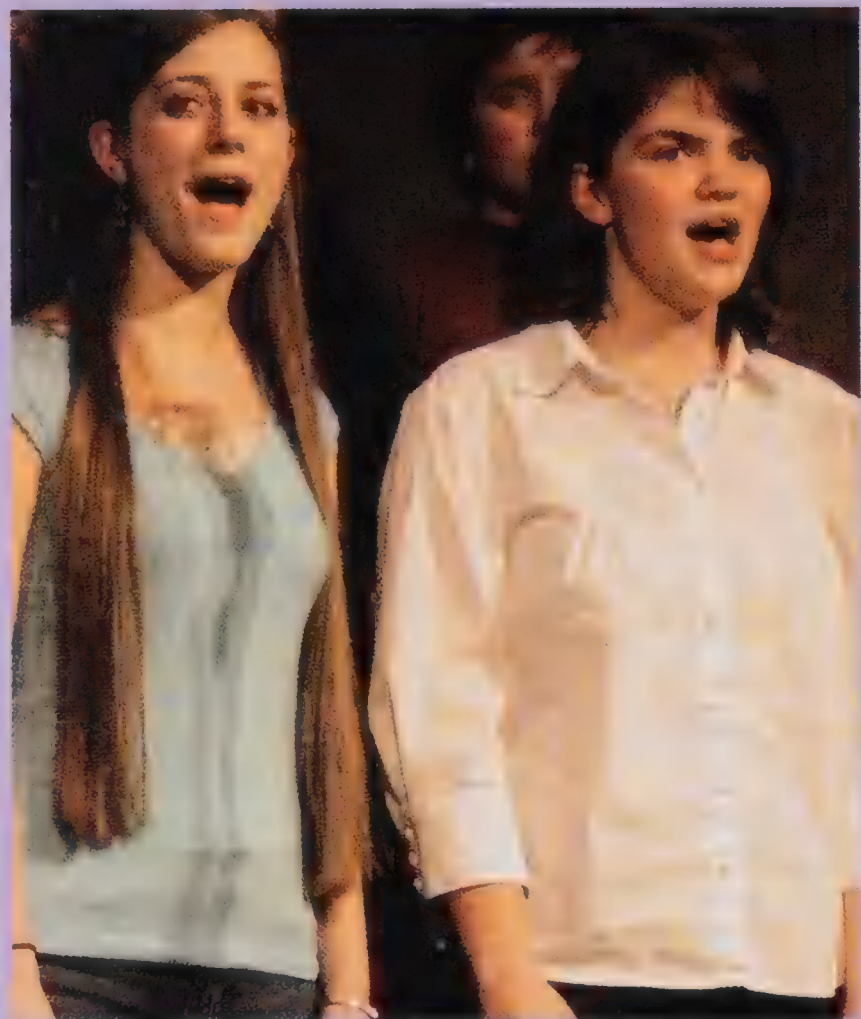

Walking toward the front of the room, partners Audrey Stangland (9) and Jared Snyder (11) follow Brittany Weber (10) and William Ryan Carter (9). Jana Hotes (12) and Zachary Henchman (9) lead the group as the head couple.

Center Right: Standing in a circle, everyone focuses their attention on Sarah Halverson, as she explains the steps to the first dance of the night.

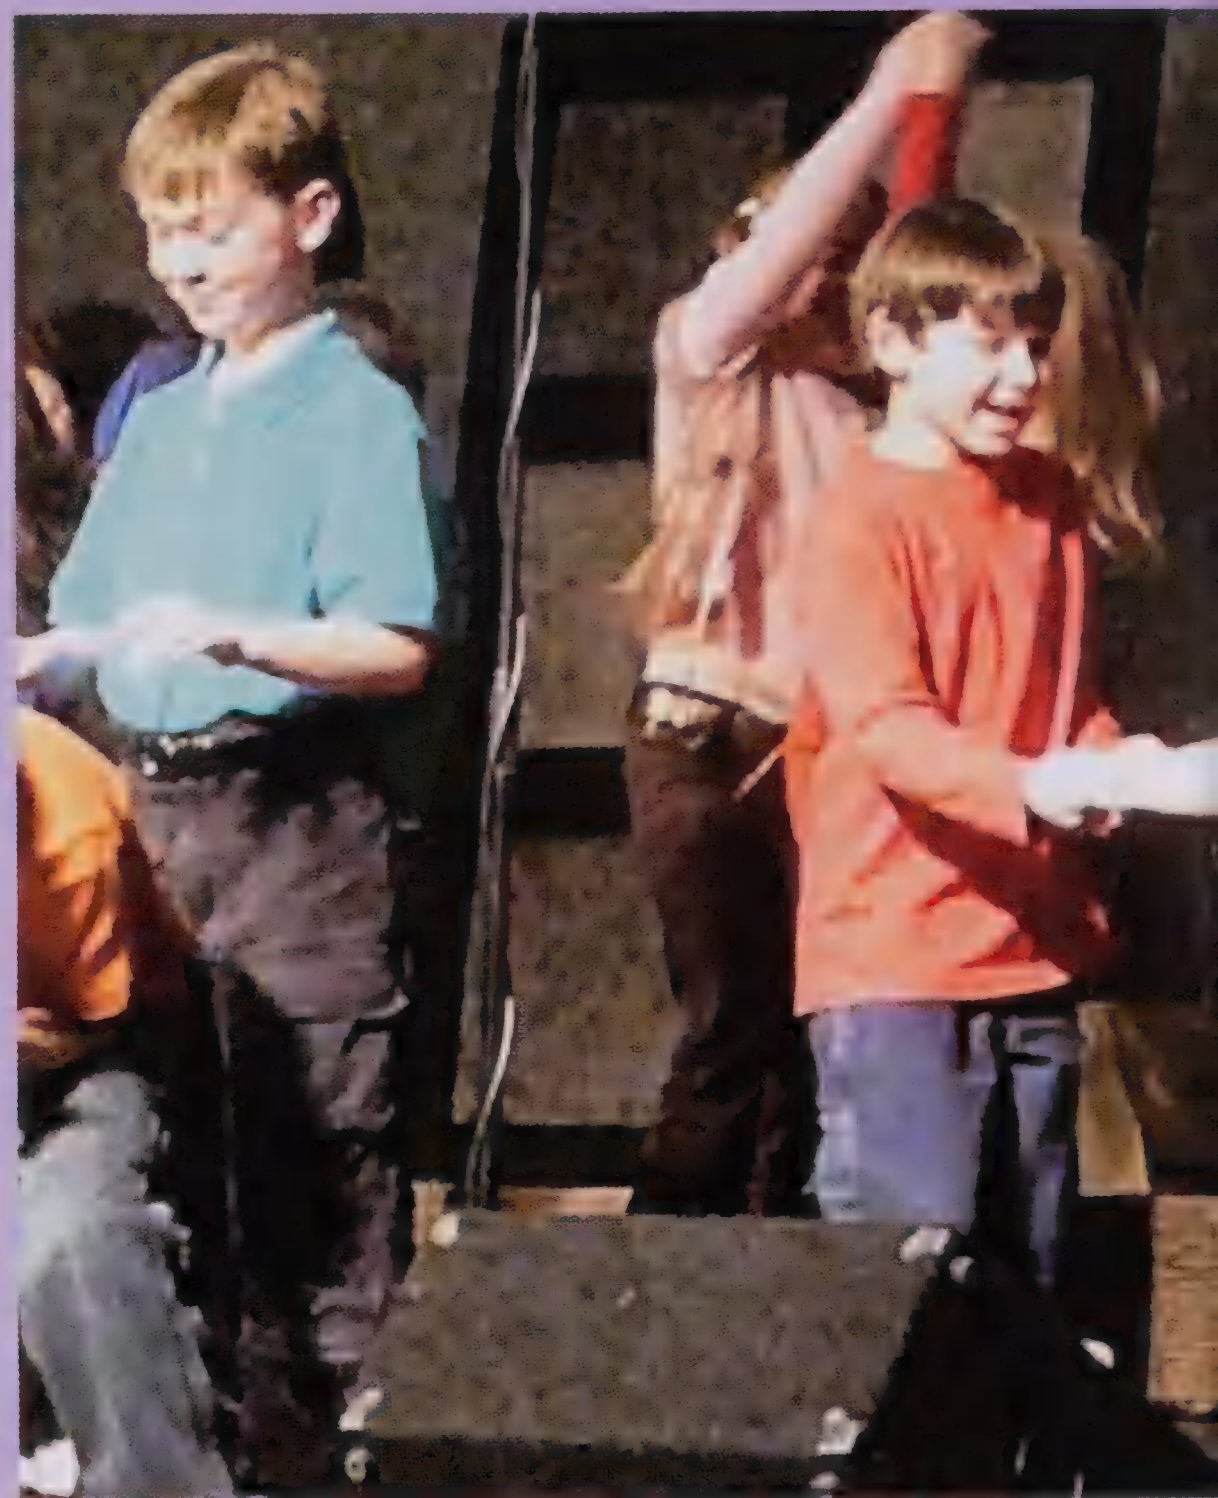

Voice Recital

Unfolding Harmonies

Below: Performing in A Cappella, Felicia Figgins (11) and Cassie Mize (9) sing together. Late in January, the Connections' voice classes of Debbie Menzies performed in concert at Northlake Christian Church. Over 100 kids performed at this concert, and after singing 2-3 songs per class, they came together to sing three "finale" songs.

Below: Singing "Pray for Rain," Braelyn Menzies (9) performs a solo in the Group Voice C class.

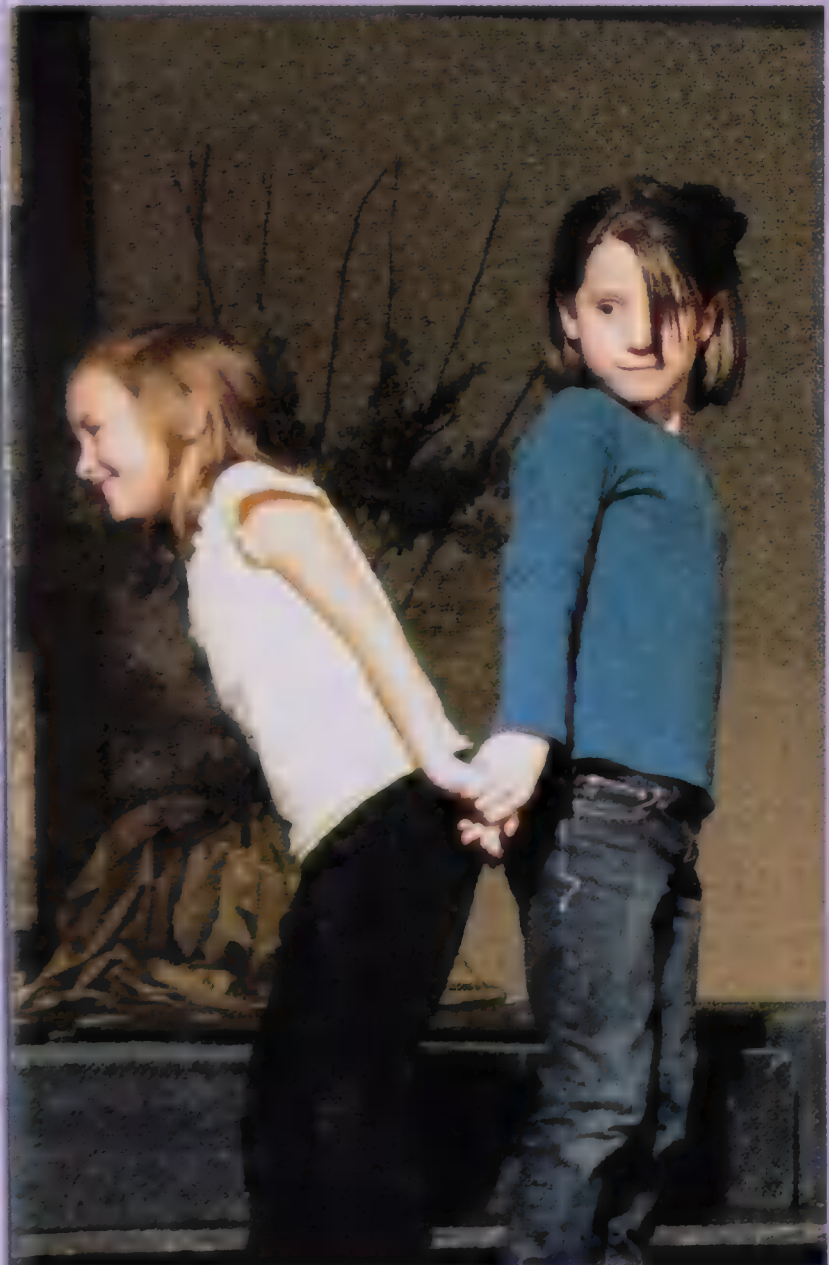

Above: Throwing their hands up, Lisa Cairns (11), Audrey Stangland (9), Abby Hutchinson (10), Braelyn Menzies (10), Sariha McIntyre (10), Tessa Tedeschi (10), and Hannah Farr (12) perform with Group Voice C in the song, "Crown You with Praise."

Right: Encouraging the audience to join in, the Group Voice A class sings, "I am a C-H-R-I-S-T-I-A-N."

Below: Dancing to "If I were a Chipmunk," Simon Scott (1) and Lynzee Lee (1) dance while Joshua Lynn (2) smiles at the audience.

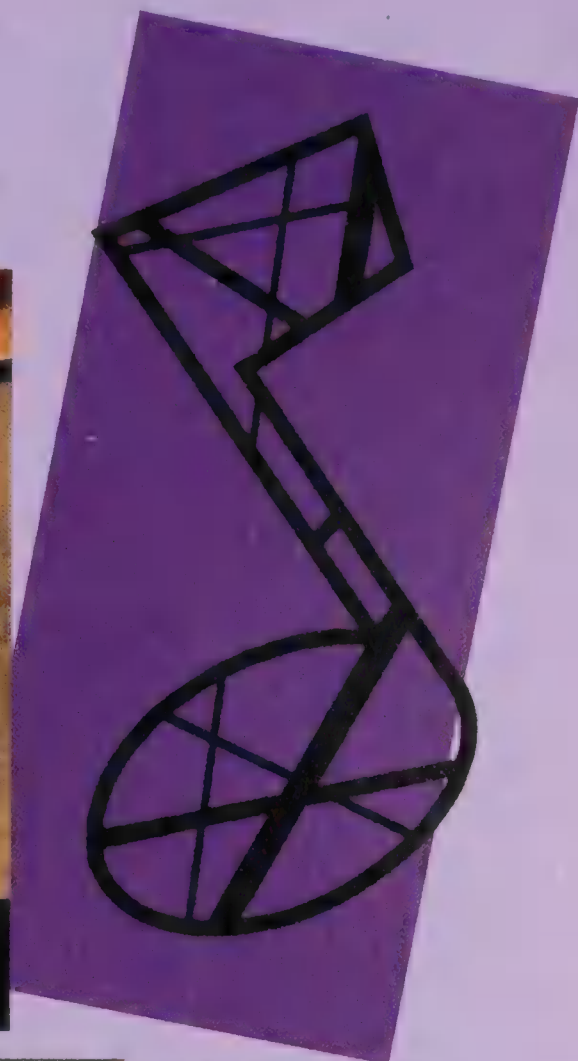

Above: Holding hands, Phaedra Lew (3) and Aubrey Hanna (2) strike a pose at the end of their dance. The Group Voice A entertained the crowd with fun songs that included motions and dancing.

Below: Greeting the audience, Mrs. Debbie Menzies introduces the first song of the recital.

Below: Signing "God," Emily Locke (4) sings "Our God is an Awesome God" with Group Voice B. This class combines motions, signing and harmony, creating a performance that include several forms of worship.

Jamie Doherty (10), Hanna Lynn (8), Abby Hutchinson (10), Braelyn Menzies (9), Kirsten Nelson (11), Jordan Seiersen (6), Alaura Duguay (4), Brookelyne Bennington (4), and Josie Mize (5).

Left: Looking at Debbie Menzies for direction, members of the A Capella class, Steven Tedrow (10), Anna Bolton (12), Taz Austin (10), Grace Peltier (10), and Braelyn Menzies (9), sing "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name."

Standing in front of all her students, Mrs. Debbie Menzies leads the singers in the finale song, "Mighty to Save." The other two finale songs performed that night were "Stand and Shout" and "What Could Be Better."

High School

Entangled in each others arms, David Meade (11), Kirsten Nelson (11), Melissa Poole (11), Hanna Cirillo (11), Mikaela Scott (11), Adella Catanzaro (11), Grace Peltier (10), Adam Stephenson (11), Bobby Gray (11), and Brennan Vanden Bos (11) attempt to untwist themselves in this challenging interactive game.

Playing a "cup slapping" game on the floor, five high schoolers try their quickness with a repetitive pattern.

Calling out their least favorite household chore, Kirsten Nelson (11) and Hanna Cirillo (11) participate in this loud, responsive game.

Smiling at her group members, Rebecca Henchman (12) waits for Mrs. Poole to call out the next category for the "category" game.

Listening to further instructions, Mikel Selin (10), Andrew Sauter (11), and Steven George (10) stand in groups according to their favorite car make.

Laughing with friends nearby, Grace Andrews (9) waits to get a drink at the snack table.

Get Together

October 10, 2008

Arriving at the get together, the students were greeted and ushered in. The party was held overlooking the ocean. A night of snacks and games for Connections' high schoolers at the Charter Clubhouse at Point Edwards in Edmonds.

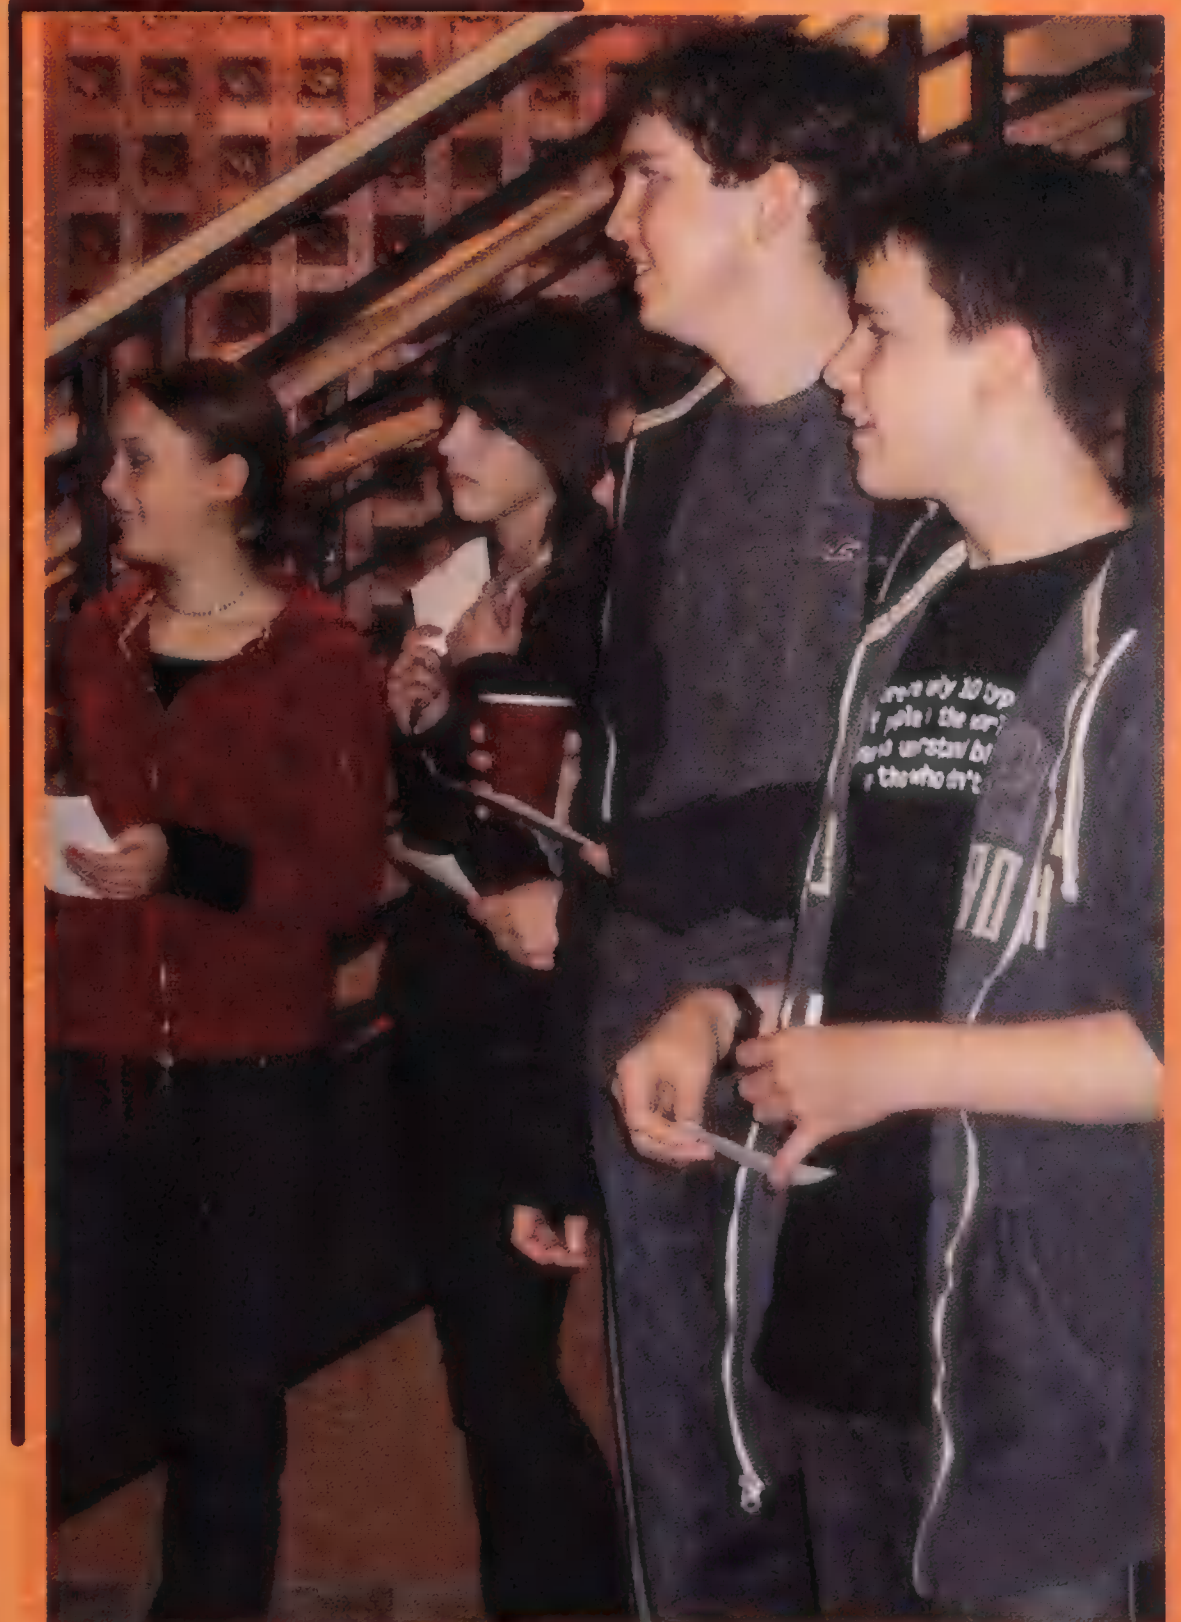

Narrating for the game "Mafia," Grant Andrews (11) tells the crowd a scary story to go along with the murder mystery, as Chelsey Lew (9) waits to get started.

Left: Writing on her partner's back, Tessa Tedeschi (10) jots down her first impressions of the partner's personality.

Sitting down to chat, Anita Gray (9) and Shirin Jamshidpour (9) smile for the camera after playing the game "Mafia".

Listening to other high schoolers read off their "personality cards," Tenae Lew (11), Margaret McKenzie (11), Robert Hyde (11), and David Hyde wait their turn to recite their own cards.

Drama A

The Bremen Town Musicians

Above Right: Too old to give milk, the cow, Nicole Casimes (3), is no longer wanted by her owner, played by Aaron Pearson.

Right: Sitting on the side of the stage, Kyle Ness (3) and Aaron Pearson (3) watch their castmates as they wait their turn to play Donkey and Cow Owner.

Far Right: Sending his goat away as no longer useful, Nathan Chung (3) plays Goat Owner.

Right: Setting the stage for the story, Kyle Roberson (3) has a role as a Storyteller.

Far Right: Explaining how the animals begin to form a friendship, Tyra Boden (2) continues to keep the audience apprised of the unfolding story as another storyteller.

After entertaining parents and other guests, the entire cast takes a final bow.

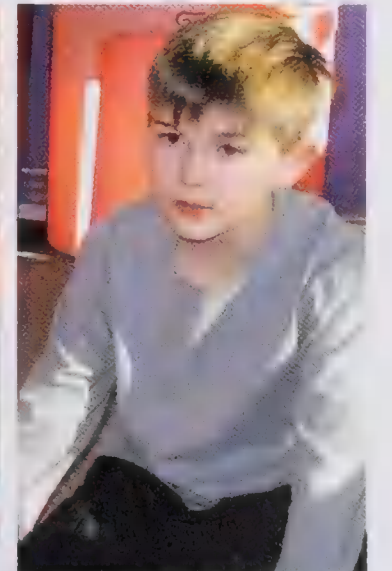

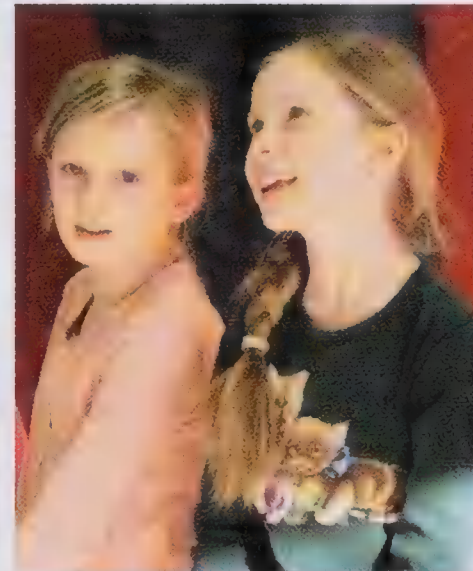

Left: Confronting each other with a snarl, robbers Trevor Lee (3): (Thief & Decipher) and Lucas Skolrud (2): (Thief) hold their ground.

Below Left: After the first four animals have gathered, Hannah Vanhoff (4), as another storyteller, describes how the cat is to be added to their growing group of friends.

Below Right: Deemed past his usefulness, the goat, played by Nicholas Scharbach (2) joins the Bremen Town Musicians.

Left Center: Another castoff, Rose Brotman (3) plays the chicken, the seventh animal added to the group.

Right Center: Answering questions afterwards from the parents, Sheridan Moore (2): (Chicken Owner) and Aubrey Hanna (2): (Tortoise) explain what they've learned in Drama A about teamwork.

Left: Making music together, Donkey, played by Kyle Ness (2), Dog, played by Caleb Travis (2), Cat, played by Sophia Cochran (2), and Rooster, played by Krystofer Ness (2) sing as they practice to become The Bremen Town Musicians.

Far Left: Delivering another part of the story, as one of the Storytellers, Joel Seeger (4) also had the role of the Hare.

Gathering trimmed debris, Galen Carlson (10), struggles to successfully free the branch.

Walking tirelessly on their way to deposit the latest collection of weeds, Clark Carlson and Arthur Fink (12) do their part.

Right: Sitting along an edge, Emily Morache (7) weeds around a flower bed.

Above Right: Attacking the weeds with a vengeance, Lynnae George (6) and her mother tackle a garden with a trowel and a team approach.

Weed

Pulling on rubber gloves, Kevin Hutchinson (5) and Zachary Morache (11) prepare to pick up litter with a large trash bag.

Left: Visiting as they work, Alison Czech (9), Brianna Langley (8), Madelynne Zornes (8), Theresa Ferrell (8), Sarah Czech (6), and Annalise Boon (5) fill a wheelbarrow with weeds from a flower garden.

Left: Wielding a straw broom, Max Gregory (10) and Aaron Tedrow (8) prepare to beat the dust out of the rugs.

Far Left: Sprucing up one corner, Isaiah Banks (5), Jordan Banks (9), and Amanda Banks (7) work with their mom to beautify one of the gardens on Monday.

Top Center: Gathering clippings, Taylor Swanby (11) and Jordan Brawner (11) fill a yard waste container. At the "Bless Our Churches" work party, June 4th, students and parents rake pruned branches and leaves to help clean up the Connections' Northshore Baptist campus. A similar workparty was held on Monday, at Northlake.

The H.O.M.E. Spelling

Unlocking the mystery of words

On January 20th, H.O.M.E. hosted a Spelling Bee at Park Ridge Community Church. Over 80 students participated, over half of which were from Connections. Center: Picturing the word she was asked to spell, Michaela Easter (7) spells one of the winning words. After winning this Spelling Bee, Michaela went on to compete in the Regional Level.

Below: In recognition of her spelling success, Rebecca Gaebel (5) receives a certificate.

See you ^{at} the pole

On Wednesday, September 24th, a group of Homeschool Connections students met in the parking lot at Northshore Baptist to take part in the nationwide event "See You At the Pole." Because there was no flagpole to congregate around, an empty section of parking lot was the designated meeting place. At eight, there were only a few students, and even though it was cold, they joined hands together and began to pray. As the hour passed, more and more students joined the circle. When it was nine, and time for classes to start, there were almost 25 students praying in the parking lot. These students were only a small fraction of the students that gathered together across the world to pray for their countries and leaders.

September 24th, 2008

See You at the Pole is a student-initiated, student organized, and student-led event. That means this is all about students meeting at their school flagpole to pray—for their school, friends, teachers, government, and their nation. See You at the Pole is not a demonstration, political rally, nor a stand for or against anything. See You at the Pole is scheduled annually on the fourth Wednesday in September.

<http://www.syatp.com/info/>

The theme for 2008 was CONNECT: Speak, for your servant is listening, taken from 1 Samuel 3:10.

SYATP brought together nearly two million teenagers at junior high, high school and college campuses in all 50 states and on six continents.

Next school year, See You at the Pole takes place on September 23rd, the fourth Wednesday of September.

Demonstrating the reason why armor helmets eventually were changed from this flat top, Mr. Callender teaches hands-on history in Western Warfare for Boys.

Often dressing in costume for her lesson, Mrs. Brenna dons a shark hat and fish slippers for the study and dissection of fish in her Biblical Science class for 11 to 13 year olds.

In light of our theme this year, Unfolding, we thought it would be of interest to look at the lives of the homeschoolers gone before us, and see what is happening in their lives right now. Whether it be living in New York, married with kids, working at Wendy's, doing missionary work overseas, etc, we sent out a request for photos and information to find out.

Right: Preparing for a summer wedding to Griffin Bainter of Bothell, Casey Hutchinson (Connections' class of 2005) is graduating this June from WWU with a degree in Spanish.

Below: Living in Bellingham, Jonathan (and Liz) Lytle (class of 2003), work with International Student Ministry.

Where Are They Now?

Below: A 2007 UW graduate, Daniel Yagi was a Connections' Senior in 2003. He is currently serving the city of Lynnwood as a Police Officer.

Pictured here with his wife, Mary, and children Micah and Katherine, Stu Morrison (Connections' class of 2000) is a foreman in construction.

Attending NW University, Nathan Austin (Connections' class of 2005) played the main character Jack Worthing in The Importance of Being Earnest, and has had several other roles.

Singing onstage at a preview concert, Brittany Menzies, center, (class of 2007 and attending CWU), and Emily Swanby, left, (class of 2008 and attending Shoreline CC), are just about to release their debut CD (with Aliya Rose Kunz) as Contemporary Christian vocal group, "Step of Faith."

Praise God from whom all blessings flow, praise Him all creatures here below, praise Him above ye heavenly host, praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Proverbs 3:5-6
"Trust in the Lord
with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths."

*"You are the light of the world.
A city on a hill cannot be hidden.
Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven."*

PIANO LESSONS WITH PURPOSE

Love the Classics?
Learn to play music of the great masters

-Students learn music theory and technique

-Student and teacher set weekly and long term goals and chart progress.

-Frequent group performances and many other opportunities give students a chance to "shine."

Donna Sams is a Washington state certified teacher and has been highly successful as a private piano teacher as well as a former school teacher.

Her students have won many honors and awards in local and state events, including full college scholarships.

Students are enjoying music as a means of communication in all walks of life.

Letter from the Editor

This year has been filled with growth and stretching for the yearbook staff. Through all of our work, we hope as our second digital yearbook "unfolds" it will far surpass your expectations. We bring you this yearbook with help from God, Mrs. Hutchinson, parents, and each other. I have thoroughly enjoyed being a part of this yearbook, and I hope that it will be a book of memories for this year and years to come.

~Kirsten Nelson, Editor

Letter from the Advisor

It has been a pleasure and a privilege to guide this yearbook staff. As our second "digital" yearbook, we sought to exceed the bar we set last year. My staff showed incredible teamwork and creativity. What a blessing to be able to record the year in the lives of all of these beautiful and talented Connections' children and young adults.

~Mrs. Debbie Hutchinson, Advisor
